Promotional Consortium - “I Vini del Piemonte”

Established in 2011 by the producers themselves, the promotional consortium aims to enhance and better communicate one of the most important wine producing regions in the world. Piedmont, “The region of excellence in the Country of beauty”, with its incredible heritage made up of small companies who produce wine with great passion, as well as the richness and uniqueness of designations of origin. In recent years, “I Vini del Piemonte” has become a reference point for small and medium-sized wine companies wishing to expand their presence in foreign markets.

Currently, it gathers together more than 230 members from all over Piedmont region, producing wines with designation of origin, with a program of around 30 events organized yearly in over 15 countries.
